

Giggity Giggity

We have been hearing back from quite a few places that we reached out to for gigs in the spring, and a few folks who somehow found us on their own! (thanks, whippoorwillow.com, you are doing a darn good job here)

We're taking a good hard look at the coming months - with shows already slated for Binghamton, Rochester and Ithaca, plans to record, and new songs to hammer out, there is a lot on the table for us to coordinate. Soon enough, April, May, and June will fill out, fresh tunes will be in your ears, AND . . .

T-shirts. This bluegrass band will have some stylin' threads in time for the holidays. Designed by Kate Harnett (<http://www.kate-harnett.com/>), and printed by Queen City Basement Designs (<http://www.queencitybasementdesigns.com/>), our first batch will be coming out any time now.
